SUBJECT: New Style Document Number on New York State Driver Licenses and Non-Driver IDs

Starting on March 24, 2017, the document number on the back of the New York State driver license, permit, and non-driver ID will be printed in a larger font. Also, a new heading "Doc#" precedes the number.

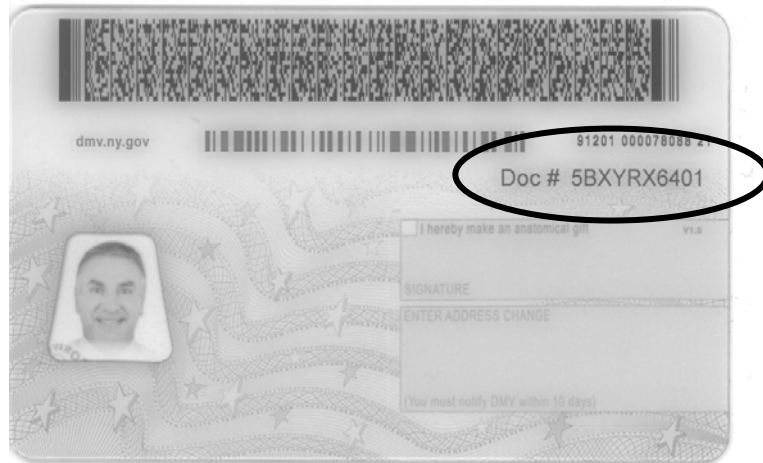

This change does not apply to New York State enhanced driver licenses, permits or non-driver IDs. The document number on the back of enhanced documents will continue to be printed after "IDUSA" in the first line of the machine-readable zone.

A sample document with the new style document number is attached.
