Albany, New York

October 30, 2013

TO: All Enforcement Agencies and Magistrates

SUBJECT: Teslin Base Driver License, Permit and Non-Driver Identification Cards

Effective September 27, 2013, the New York State Department of Motor Vehicles ceased issuing the Teslin base style of driver license, permit and non-driver identification card (DL/ID). Only the redesigned polycarbonate DL/ID is being issued. NYS DMV has issued both styles over the last two months as the redesigned polycarbonate DL/ID was phased in.

Refer to memo "P" 18/"M" 12 for more information regarding the redesigned polycarbonate NYS DL/ID card.

Please share this information with appropriate staff, including all road patrol enforcement. Thank you.
