SUBJECT: Extension Discontinued on the Expiration Date of DMV Vehicle
Safety/Emissions Inspection Stickers

Our memo dated November 9, 2012, ("P" 20/"M" 14) announced that all vehicle safety/emissions inspections for residents of New York City and the counties of Rockland, Westchester, Nassau, and Suffolk, which were scheduled to expire on or after October 29, 2012, were extended until further notice due to the impact of Hurricane Sandy.

This extension was ended on December 4, 2012, by Executive Order 85.

In addition, Executive Order 91 suspends until February 28, 2013, Vehicle and Traffic Law sections 375 (equipment requirements), 385 (weight and dimension requirements and 401 (registration requirements) in relation to out-of-state vehicles engaged in Hurricane Sandy recovery efforts.
