SUBJECT: IRP Update – One Month Extension of New York IRP Registrations

The New York State Department of Motor Vehicles has issued a one month extension of its IRP registrations. All New York apportioned registrations, which officially expire on March 31, 2014, are now extended through April 30, 2014. The enforcement date for display of the new credentials is May 1, 2014.

If you have any questions, please contact the International Registration Bureau at (518) 473-5834.

Please share this information with appropriate staff, including all road patrol enforcement. Thank you.
