SUBJECT: Snowmobile Registration Stickers

Snowmobile registration stickers for expiration year 2024 should be red. However, due to an error, some of the stickers were manufactured in light gray. As a result, there will be a mix of valid snowmobile registrations for expiration year 2024 with red stickers and gray stickers. Each sticker is valid. However, DMV strongly recommends against relying on the stickers alone to determine whether the registration is valid. The registration record should be checked electronically to determine validity.

Samples of the sticker with the correct color (red) and the incorrect color (gray) are shown below:
